Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2006092254A2] The invention relates to a book-type document, particularly an identification document, comprising a book cover or a binding (12), a support (26) which accepts at least components of a data carrier; and several data pages (18) that are connected by means of a seam (16). The data pages (18) are joined to a book cover or a binding (12). At least some sections of the support (26) extend to a joint region (23) of the seam (16) while at least some sections of the support (26) are connected to at least one data page (18) with the aid of the seam (16) or at least one additional seam.
