Abstract (en)

[origin: US2008006657A1] A valve disk for a spray can, having a disk dome for receiving a spray valve and a concentric collar which is molded on while forming a surrounding ring groove and in which collar an elastic sealing ring is held in a form-locking manner. An outer edge bounding the ring groove is bent over at least partially in a surrounding manner in the direction of the ring groove while forming a supporting surface for the sealing ring.
