Abstract (en)

The device (1) has an applicator nozzle (2) loaded with a product, where the device is made of elastically deformable material. The nozzle is made of elastomer or silicone and comprises a notch (10) delimiting concave and convex application surfaces (7, 8) for applying the product on two surfaces of a nail. Two tabs (5, 6) are extended on both sides of the notch. The length of each tab is comprised between 3 and 20 millimeters. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) an assembly for storing and applying product on a nail (2) a method for applying a product on a nail.

Abstract (fr)

Ce dispositif pour appliquer un produit sur un ongle comprend un embout (2) applicateur apte à se charger en produit et à appliquer le produit sur l'ongle. L'embout (2) comporte une encoche (10) délimitant deux surfaces d'application (7, 8) en regard, destinées à l'application du produit sur deux faces de l'ongle.
