Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1895063A2] The unit (11) has a profile for mounting and attaching a sanitary device e.g. hand shower (39), at a front side (14), where the profile has a profile surface (13). A pipeline device (21) i.e. shower hose, is guided from a back of the profile surface through a laterally open slot (25) in the profile surface to the sanitary device at the front side and/or profile surface. The pipeline device is fastened to the unit behind the profile surface at an installation body hinter of the profile surface. The sanitary device is arranged in an upper area of the unit.
