Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1898383A2] The device (10) has a base (E) for assembly of the device on a furniture of a sales area. A support (S) has a corner piece (7) connected to a rod (6). The base has a sleeve (51) cooperated with the corner piece for assembly of the support and the base with various positioning of the corner piece for its engagement in the sleeve, so that different orientations of the rod are obtained with respect to the base according to the engagement of the corner piece and the positioning of the corner piece. The sleeve assures maintenance of the device in assembled position of the support with the base.
