Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1908588A2] The printing form has a panoramic printing form (19) and supports side by side printed images of a specific number n (n greater than 1) of printed pages having a specific format (F1, F2). The printing form has a width which corresponds to a number of n = 3 vertical printed pages in newspaper format (F1, F2) and supports side by side printed images of n = 3 pages in newspaper format. The printing element (13) has a printable maximum width and the form has a width which essentially corresponds to half maximum width (b1) of a course. The n print pages are asymmetrically to each other over arranged the width of the printing form.
