Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1911588A2] The device has a measuring bar (1) provided for a measuring head (8) e.g. color measuring head. A computer (4) e.g. commercial personal computer and laptop, controls the bar and is connected with a display (5) e.g. touch screen. Measuring points are selectable on the display using input devices e.g. computer mouse (11) and keyboard (6). The measuring head is positioned by the bar based on the selected measuring points. Digitized data of an image in the computer are transmitted to a print substrate (3). A digital image is represented on the substrate.
