Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1914023A1] Separating device (1) comprises a manipulating unit (5) and a transport support (2) positioned on a support surface (6) via positioning protrusions (31) of the transport support and positioning units having centering holders (32). An adjusting space (27) formed by the positioning units forms a stacking shaft (3) in a reference position to final position of a gripping device (14).
