Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1918498A1] Hidden hinge with two hinge parts (11-12) that are connected by a first arm (26) which is hinge-mounted to the first hinge part (11) and the second hinge part (12) respectively with its far ends, whereby a second arm (35) of the hinge (9-10) is hinge-mounted to the first hinge part (11) on the one hand, and is hinge-mounted to the first arm (26) on the other hand, such that an imaginary triangle (D) can be defined between the hinged joints (28, 36) of the first and the second arm with the first hinge part (11) on the one hand, and the hinged joint (33) of both arms (26, 35) between themselves on the other hand, and whereby the hinged joint (31) of the second hinge part (12) with the first arm (26) is situated outside said imaginary triangle (D).
