Abstract (en)
A replacement cartridge container is provided that includes a tub (12) and a selectively removable lid (14). The tub includes a base panel attached to a side panel (24). The base panel (22) and the side panel (24) each have an interior surface (28,44) and an exterior surface (30,46). A cavity (26) is formed contiguous with the interior surfaces (28,44) of the base panel and the side panel (24). The selectively removable lid attaches to the tub (12) and forms a seal with the tub.
