Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1923957A2] The arrangement (10) has a threaded section (40) in engagement with another threaded section (28), and a fastening part i.e. bolt (20), defining an electric connecting part (42) such that an electrical connection is provided between a connecting part (42) and a plate (16). A cover part (30) is defined at the part (20) in an end position, where the cover part covers a part of the section (28) in a covered position, until the section (40) is in step-engagement with the section (28) and the cover part is shifted from the covered position to an end position. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a pre-mounted fastening unit for a fastening arrangement (2) a method for manufacturing a fastening arrangement.
