Abstract (en)
The invention is a dispenser (1) of flexible thin elements (4) for domestic or similar use, arranged as a sheet (3) and separated from one another by tear-off lines (5) arranged across the sheet. The dispenser (1) comprises a container (2) for the sheet (3) provided with a slit (6) for extracting it and with a projecting body (7) arranged downstream of the slit (6) according to the direction of extraction of the sheet (3), suited to be fitted in a through opening (5b) present in each flexible thin element (4) to allow it to be easily detached from the sheet (3) during extraction.
