Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1930122A1] The centrifugal wheel has a base disk (2) for connection to a drive shaft, several reversibly connected centrifugal blades (4) with foot parts (42) fitting in associated recesses (24) and a single common locking arrangement (3) for reversibly fixing all blades. Each recess in the base disk and/or each foot part has at least one holding arrangement (5) for temporarily holding the blades on the disk until the locking arrangement has been applied and fixed.
