Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1935828A1] The installation has elevator cars arranged vertically one above the other in a shaft, where the cars include a middle elevator car (7a) and two adjacent elevator cars (7b,7c) . The middle elevator car is independently movable in a middle car zone and the adjacent elevator car are independently movable in two associate adjacent car zones. The middle car zone and the adjacent car zones serve a common floor and one of the car zones is allocated to two building zones.
