Abstract (en)
[origin: DE102006059468A1] The shading has a rotatably supported fabric spindle, where a shading element or fabric (2) or a fly-screen, transparent hangings, roller blind or cloth is developable from the fabric spindle. A front end of the shading element or fabric is fastened to an extensible retractable profile (3). The retractable profile exhibits a guiding element (4), by which the retractable profile is guided to another elongated guiding element (5). The former guiding element is movable and fixable to the retractable profile.
