Abstract (en)
An engaging assembly (10) for a floor covering comprises an elongate first engaging member (12) for engaging the floor and an elongate second engaging member (16) for engaging the floor covering. The engaging assembly further includes a connecting member (18) comprising first and second securing formations (26, 28, 30, 32) to co-operate with the first and second engaging members respectively and secure the first and second engaging members thereto, thereby connecting the first and second engaging members to each other.
