Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2007042548A1] The invention mainly concerns an assembly for a ground disconnect switch comprising a fixed ground contact (12), a phase contact (14) adapted to be electrically connected to a conducting bar (8) via mobile connection means (16) for electrically contacting the fixed ground contact (12) and the phase contact (14), the fixed ground contact (12), the phase contact (14) and the mobile connection means (16) being mounted on a mounting plate (6). The invention also concerns a ground disconnect switch comprising such an assembly and a method for making a ground disconnect switch in accordance with the invention.
