Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1949783A1] The scale has a plane part (2) and an anchoring and articulation part (1) including a fixation tab fixed on a carrying ramp (3) of a row of scales, where the tab has holes forming a passage for rods of an assembling unit e.g. bolt, of the articulation part. A flexible assembling and articulation tab is attached with the fixation tab. The parts are provided with a rapid complementary assembling and disassembling unit including an automatic locking device in an assembling position. A fixation block (10) has a vertical slit (11), and is provided in assembling units of the parts.
