Abstract (en)
[origin: DE102005056625A1] The unit has a frame work (10) with hollow sections, which are connected with one another. Support braces (11,12) of the framework extend up to lower and/or upper boundary of the framework. Rollers (17,18) and/or support rollers (19,20) are attached in an area of the support braces to the framework. The rollers and/or support rollers are connected by a snap and/or rest connection with the framework in particular lower or upper braces.
