Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2007054980A1] An open topped stackable container tub (1) is provided comprising side walls (2), end walls (3) and a bottom wall (4), the side walls being provided with open fork lift insertion recesses (5) along the length of the side walls in proximity to the bottom. In a preferred embodiment the bottom is provided with downwardly protrusions (6, 7, 8) wherein outer dimensions of said protrusions mate with the inner periphery (9) of the open top of the container, allowing secured vertical stacking of two or more of said containers.
