Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1964990A1] The element (900) has a hidden part (915) partially receiving a border, and a hidden part (910) partially receiving a roof bow. A visible part (905) has an opened cavity (920) formed in a side adjacent to the part (915). The cavity receives a guiding device e.g. trolley. The visible part has an opened cavity (935) formed on a side opposite to the cavity (920). The part (915) has an opening (945) formed towards a bottom to receive a castor whose rotational axis is perpendicular to the border.
