Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1967677A2] The mounting arrangement has a bracket (7) for holding a shutter hinge of a window or a door shutter and a console (6) for fastening the bracket at a mounting frame (1). The console has a fastening section for fastening the bracket at the mounting frame. The console is formed as two-parts with a front-side and rear-side sections (12,15), where the front side section (12) for fastening the mounting frame at a front side (5) and the rear side section (15) for fastening the mounting frame at a rear side (13). Connecting devices (31) are provided for connecting the two sections. An independent claim is also included for a mounting frame for fastening of a window or a door shutter within the area of a window or door frame.
