Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1972229A1] The cupboard has a cupboard drawer (1) extractable from a cupboard body (2) in an extraction direction (7) by a lower extracting guide (8) and an upper extracting guide (9). The drawer is retractable against the extraction direction. A pivot axis (24) of a locking arm (23) horizontally lies in an angle range of 0 degrees to 45 degrees, where pivoting of the arm from its release position during a normal position of the drawer into its locking position during a pivoting condition of the drawer takes place by gravity.
