Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2006122831A2] Disclosed is a piece of garment comprising several garment parts that are removably interconnected. The inventive piece of garment is characterized in that at least two of the garment parts form complete pieces of garment which can be worn independently of each other while the shape or appearance of at least one of said garment parts that can be worn independently of each other can be modified by turning the same inside out or by means of a removable, additional garment part which can be worn only together with said garment part. Such a piece of garment can be embodied as a dress, a pants suit, or a coat. Several such pieces of garment can be combined into an ensemble. A specially designed suitcase or travel bag is provided for the inventive pieces of garment.
