Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1992748A2] The grid (10) has an accessible top side which is formed by parallel removable top side running vines (12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24). The vines have an upper edge running in longitudinal direction to the top side which is bent to the top side in transverse direction relative to the vines. The vines run parallel to the longitudinal direction of a drainage body (32). The upper edges of the vines bent downward (24) are bent downward to the center of the drainage body (32). An independent claim is included for a drainage body.
