Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1993324A2] The ear fitting piece (10) has an earphone (11) with an earphone connection including a snap element at a sound outlet. An adaptor (12) is inserted directly into the ear fitting piece. The adaptor has another snap element, which is latched into the former snap element. A seal (13) surrounds completely the earphone connection and consists of an elastic material better than the earphone connection and the adaptor. The seal is fitted in between the earphone connection and the adaptor.
