Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2007101517A2] Disclosed is a method for creating packages that are composed of several packaging units by wrapping said packaging units with a film material. According to said method, the film material is printed with the aid of at least one printing unit immediately before the wrapping process. Said at least one printing unit is located between the supply and the packaging station in the direction of travel of the film material.
