Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2025474A2] The separator (1) has a support lever (8) with a fork section that includes a fork-shaped retainer and a supporting section. A press lever (9) has a pressing section and a transition section , and an actuator (17) is integrated between a transition section of the support lever and the transition section of the press lever. A pressure unit is indirectly coupled with threaded holes (18, 19) of the support lever or the press lever by an inserting pivot (20), where the pressure unit has a spring-loaded locking body (21).
