Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2030801A1] The method involves guided and detached aligning gathered printed sheet of a book block on a promotion section in a transportation clip (5) and before leaving the aligned printed sheet is clamped to a determined promotion section by latches of the transportation clip to a processing location at the flat exteriors to be clamped. An independent claim is included for a device for execution of a method for producing an adhesive-bound book block.
