Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2031175A1] Side part (10) comprises an adapter disk (20) fixed to the side part using a bayonet connection with the elements of the disk and side part having beveled surfaces (30a, 30b, 38a, 38b) in relation to the axial and radial direction via which they are supported. Preferred Features: Stops (40) are arranged in the peripheral direction at a distance from the beveled surfaces to limit the relative movement of the disk.
