Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2036813A1] The method involves transporting a foundation structure (1) to a place of foundation and lowering the foundation structure at the place of foundation. The foundation structure is fixed with a foundation pile (4). The foundation pile is mounted at the foundation structure and is transported together with the foundation structure to the place of foundation. An independent claim is included for a foundation structure with a pile casing surrounding a foundation pile.
