Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2053168A2] The fitting has a box shaped housing (1) formed for a wall installation. A drain pipe or drain housing (5) is inserted in the box shaped housing. A cover is attached to a maintenance door (2). An opening aligned with an inlet of the drain pipe or drain housing is formed in the cover. A water valve (12) e.g. angle valve, and/or an electrical voltage supply connection is held in the box shaped housing that exhibits a recess for introduction of water and/or flow line. The water valve is provided with a flexible connecting cable (31), which is partially held in the box shaped housing.
