Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2058429A1] The method involves bringing and washing a piece of laundry in a washing machine i.e. drum type washing machine. A cloth-hanger (1) changeable in its shape is attached to the piece of laundry before inputting of the piece of laundry into the washing machine. The shape of the cloth hanger is changed after washing. The piece of laundry is kept at the cloth-hanger during drying, handling and/or storing periods. The volume of the cloth-hanger is varied during the process of blowing and/or discharging air. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a coat-hanger comprising air feeding chambers (2) a system for washing a piece of laundry comprising a set of cloth hangers and a washing machine.
