Abstract (en)

[origin: DE102006046588B3] The machine for producing roof tiles with water stops has a magazine (6) containing water stop plates (8, 9). A loader (5) transports the plates (7) to a fitting unit (3) with a holder (30) for the plates and a piston (29) which fits them on the edge of the tiles (12). An independent claim is included for a method for producing roof tiles with water stops.
