Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2105546A2] The attachment part (1) has a base plate (5) comprising frame-like cooperating walls (2), where the attachment part is arranged at an external side of a building (3) and is formed as a single part or multipart. Individual elements such as building bricks, wood or plastic parts, provided on the base plate are connected with each other. A fastening unit connects the attachment part with the building. The frame-like cooperating walls include a side wall (2/2), another side wall, ceiling (2/1), floor (2/3) and a rear wall (2/5). An independent claim is also included for a building i.e. thermal insulated building, comprising an attachment part.
