Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2039853A1] The assembly (100) has a case (104) for receiving an electric device, where the case has a base (204) whose shape is adopted for maintaining the case on top of a fence post (106). A cover (108) has an integrating unit (208) provided for maintaining the cover on top of the case. The fence post has an extension (216) extending the post along the case. The cover has integrating units (210) in the form of tongue to integrate the cover with the extension, where the extension is extended to the top of the case. The post has a hollow tubular element (206) opened at top of the post.
