Abstract (en)

[origin: DE102007001477B3] Cold gas spraying method comprises injecting particles (22) of a first type in a first region (20) of a stagnation chamber (15) which lies closer to a nozzle (14) than a second region (21) in which particles (23) of a second type are injected. An independent claim is also included for a cold spraying device used in the above method.
