Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1431231A1] A sheave, a car side deflection wheel and a weight side deflection wheel are arranged on a straight line when viewed along a hoistway, and the sheave, the car side deflection wheel and the weight side deflection wheel have their axes arranged in parallel with respect to one another. In addition, a main rope, after ascending from a weight along the hoistway, is wrapped around an upper side of the weight side deflection wheel, and thereafter the main rope, after being wrapped around the sheave and the car side deflection wheel, descends in the hoistway to arrive at a car. <IMAGE>
