Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2008098266A2] The invention relates to an ejector for ejecting a mobile furniture part from a closed final position in or on a furniture base. Said ejector comprises a first ejector lever, which can be driven by an electric drive unit, especially an electric motor, an additional ejector lever (3), being interspaced from the first ejector lever (2) and being mechanically coupled thereto in such a manner that when the first ejector lever (2) is driven by the drive unit, the additional ejector lever (3) is displaced, too.
