Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2119828A2] Track covering plates (6, 7) are formed as a concrete prefabricated part (12) made from concrete which is resistant to high temperatures. An independent claim is also included for a track-connecting machine for disassembling and assembling the track covering plates. Preferred Features: The concrete prefabricated part has a base body made from concrete and a steel reinforcement (22) for reinforcing the base body.
