Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2008067576A2] The invention relates to packaging (1) for small bottles (12), said packaging comprising a first packaging part (2) and a second packing part (3), the first and second packaging parts (2, 3) each comprising at least two interspaced recesses (4, 4') which are moulded in a dimensionally stable manner and are surrounded by essentially flat connecting sections (10, 19') around the openings thereof, said connecting sections connecting the packaging elements in a liquid-tight and detachable manner. The recesses (4, 4') are provided with spacer ribs (5, 5') which are distributed over the periphery and fix the bottles (12) and the closing devices.
