Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2127586A1] The appliance (1) has a cooking top with maintenance units (2) for maintaining the appliance against a wall (3), where the units have a bracket (4) with two fixation holes cooperating with the units respectively on the wall and on the appliance. The units have a locking pin (7) cooperating with one of the fixation holes, and a blocking unit for blocking the fixation hole. The blocking unit cooperates with the bracket to authorize passage of the pin in the fixation hole if the appliance is in a maintenance position against the wall.
