Abstract (en)
[origin: DE202007004909U1] The furniture (100) has cable channels (105, 107) including a cable channel cover plate (104) that is provided on a same height like a work plate of the furniture. The cover plate is completely pivoted from a covering position under the work plate or perpendicular to the work plate of the furniture. The cover plate has a cable bushing (106) e.g. foam plastic unit or strip unit or soft rubber unit, where the bushing is provided at a longitudinal edge of the cover plate lying opposite to the work plate.
