Abstract (en)

The package (10) has a container (12) provided with an opening, and a plate (16) extended at the level of the opening. The plate carries draining units (18, 18', 18''), and an applicator passes through one of the draining units to remove a product in the container. The plate is movably mounted on the container such that the draining units occupy different positions in the opening of the container, where the positions permit removal of the product using the applicator in different zones of the container. An independent claim is also included for a method for utilizing a cosmetic product package.

Abstract (fr)

Conditionnement (10) pour produit cosmétique, comprenant un récipient (12) à large ouverture (24) au niveau duquel est monté un plateau (16) portant au moins deux organes d'essorage (18'), ce plateau étant monté mobile sur le récipient de façon à ce que chaque organe d'essorage puisse occuper des positions différentes dans l'ouverture du récipient, ces positions permettant de prélever du produit (14) avec un applicateur (20) dans des zones différentes du récipient.
