Abstract (en)

A keg for containing a carbonated beverage having an opening at its upper side (2) for filling the keg (1) and for dispensing the beverage out of the keg (1). The opening is provided with outlet means for allowing the outflow of the beverage. Inside the keg (1) a tube (5) is present for guiding the beverage to be dispensed from the lower part of the keg (1) to said outlet means. The length of the tube (5) is at least two times the height of the keg (1).
