Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2141674A1] The arrangement has an interpretation unit (3) for interpretation of speech inputs and for interpretation of inputs occurring through the movement of a remote control device (1). A device (2) i.e. set-top-box, to be remotely controlled is arranged in the remote control device. Speech- or movement inputs are digitalized by a digitalizing unit (11) in the remote control device. The digital data included in the digitalizing unit are transferred as digital data stream to a receiver (7) of the device to be remotely controlled by a transmitter (6) of the remote control device.
