Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2161386A2] The frame (2) has a cover (27) fixed to a base profile (3) that exhibits a fastening interface at a front side. The fastening interface is formed for attaching a cover profile (29), for fixing the cover and/or for retaining a connecting unit (58) for connecting the base profile with another adjacent base profile of another adjacent frame. The fastening interface exhibits a front wall for installation of the cover profile. The fastening interface exhibits a fastening bar for fixing the cover profile. A longitudinal slot is arranged between two cover brackets of the cover profile.
