Citation (search report)

- [I] Statement in accordance with the Notice from the European Patent Office dated 1 October 2007 concerning business methods (OJ EPO 11/2007, 592-593): The claimed subject matter, with due regard to the description and drawings, relates to processes comprised in the list of subject matter and activities excluded from patentability under Art. 52(2) EPC, i.e. a non-technical scheme for order query identifying a firm order for a financial instrument. The applicant is advised that in accordance with the established practice of the EPO, no search need be performed in respect of those aspects of the claimed invention. The only identifiable technical aspects of the claimed invention relate to the use of conventional, general-purpose data processing technology for processing data of an inherently non-technical nature in order to automate the non-technical scheme. The information technology employed is considered to have been generally known as it was widely available to everyone at the date of filing/priority of the present application. The notoriety of such prior art cannot reasonably be contested. No documentary evidence was therefore considered required.
