Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2215927A1] The furniture has a drawer (28) arranged under a rectangular table top (10) supported by a frame (16). The drawer includes a supply and/or communication connector for connecting a notebook-connecting cable of a notebook accommodated in the drawer, where the notebook-connecting cable is accommodated in the drawer. The supply and/or communication connector is connected to a corresponding table furniture-connecting cable, where the supply and/or communication connector is connected to corresponding supply or communication connector of a building via the table furniture-connecting cable. The supply and/or communication connector of the drawer is selected from one of power supply connector, Internet connector and data network connector.
