Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2217036A1] The worktop (5) has an induction cooking hob (3) including a glass plate (1) with length greater than 100 cm and breadth greater than 40 cm. A cooking marker (2) is attached to the glass plate and provided with an inner surface, where the inner surface is less than 70 percentage of total surface of the glass plate. The induction cooking hob is placed below the cooking marker and worktop. The glass plate includes LED or organic LED and a ceramic fiber with a ceramic screen printing ink. An independent claim is also included for a method for manufacturing a kitchen worktop.
